

Darrin Kelly is the President of the Allegheny Fayette Labor Council. He is a lifelong resident of the City of Pittsburgh and a proud Pittsburgh firefighter for over 22 years. In his duties of representing over 100,000 men and women of all aspects of labor, he also serves on a number of Boards such as; Partners4Work Workforce Development Board, United Way of Western PA, Allegheny Health Network's Cancer Center Advisory Committee, PA AFL-CIO Executive Board, National AFL-CIO Labor Council Steering Committee, Co-Chair of Mayor Ed Gainey's Transition Committee for Workforce Development and Education, County Executive Transition Team, Union Veteran's Council, Vice-President Pittsburgh Firefighters Pension Board, Pittsburgh Commission Board on Infrastructure-to name a few.

